

Memo Dutch Silk Road Art Exhibition in the Netherlands 2019

In 2019 an exchange of exhibitons between China and the Netherlands was realised. 9 Chinese artists exposed their works in 5 locations in Leeuwarden, Kampen, The Hague and Groningen, April-August 2019. The exhibitions were accompanied by a paper Dutch/English and a catalogue Chinese/English

Lin Baogang

Wen Ji

Tian Genshun

Song YaPing

Gao Mini

Wang Ben

Zhu JinHui

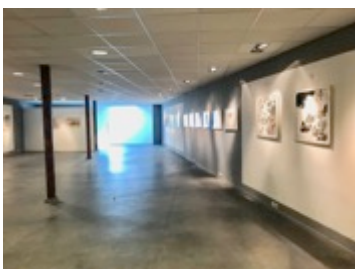

Guo Xianlu

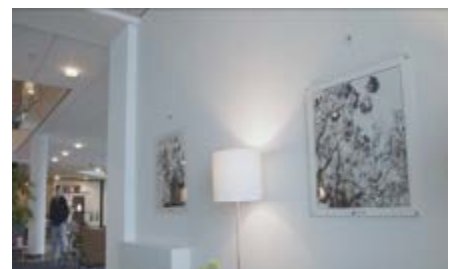

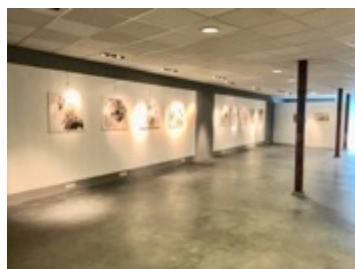

Ju Shi

Leeuwarden

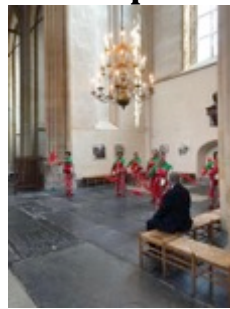

Frisian Gallery, Leeuwarden

WTC, Leeuwarden

The exhibition in Leeuwarden was opened by Bettine Vriesekoop, former champion tabletennis, writer and China-expert, followed by the Chinese dancing group Mulan

Kampen

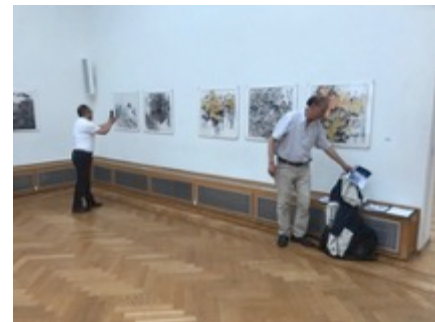

St. Nicholas Church, Kampen

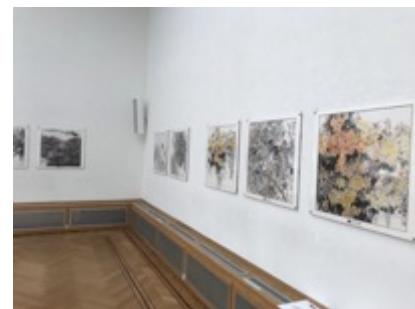

The exhibition in the Saint Nicholas Church in Kampen was opened by Tom Hageman, president of the foundation ILFAS and also by the Chinese dancing group Mulan.

The Hague

Pulchri Studio, The Hague

The exhibition in Pulchri Studio The Hague was opened by mr. Zhao Xu, Cultural Director, Chinese Embassy in the Netherlands.

During this exhibition Tom Hageman gave a lecture: "East is east and west is west and once the twain shall meet"

Groningen

Gouvernemental House, Groningen

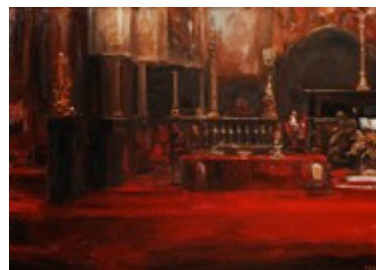

The exhibition in Groningen was concluded with a reception by the provincial government.

Dutch Silk Road Art Exhibition in China

In cooperation with the International League of Fine Art Schools, the Classical Salon organised the transport of 53 Dutch artpieces to China.

Busser

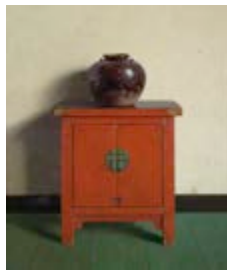

Elias

Hageman

Hartwig

Helmantel

v Hoogdalem

Jonkman

Leuvenink

Pol

Snijders

Willems

Those paintings from Geurt Busser, Douwe Elias, Tom Hageman, Peter Hartwig, Henk Helmantel, Herman van Hoogdalem, Wim Jonkman, Esther Leuvenink, Rein Pol, Ben Snijders and Nick Willems were sent from Rotterdam NL to Qingdao China.